FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

A TIME FOR REFLECTION

DEAN'S MESSAGE

To those graduating with the degree of Master of Business Administration this year, the Faculty of Management Studies salutes you. You join a long line of graduates which began with the first class receiving the Master of Commerce degree at the University of Toronto in 1939, a degree which was changed to Master of Business Administration in 1960. Education in Commerce and Business Administration at the University of Toronto dates back to 1901 when the first diploma program in Commerce was begun.

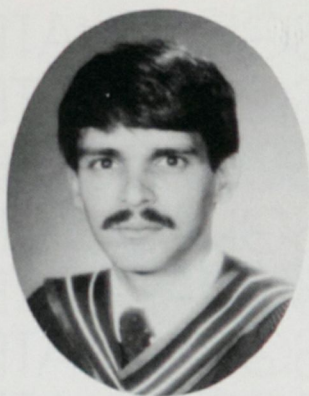

I have no doubt that the class of '86 will add distinction to this list of graduates and that many of you will become leaders in the world of business and public administration.

We wish you the best in your future endeavours. The Faculty will try to keep in touch with you through a regular Newsletter, Alumni Day, and other events designed to reach out to you. We ask that you keep us informed of your activities, change of address, and so forth (through Dorothy Wootton). We also hope that you will remember the Faculty's needs for improved library and computer facilities and fellowships. Future generations of students will benefit greatly from enhancements to our facilities made possible by the generosity of graduates.

Best Wishes!

John A. Sawyer

THE MBA LIFE

ROSTREVOR

Rostrevor was a time to relax and drink before the school year started. The first year students were put in the hands of a select few who would then demonstrate what the MBA program does to a person.

CENTRE ISLAND PICNIC

A View from the Island

The Centre Island Picnic came right on the heels of Rostrevor. The students just couldn't get enough sun and beer so the picnic seemed to be the cure.

Although the baseball skills may have been lacking at times, the enthusiasm made up for it (especially when the beer finally arrived).

CURLING NIGHT

Curling Night took place at the Terrace on January 24th. The turnout was quite large as most people realized that curling rinks also have bars.

After a lot of curling (and drinking), most of those who participated felt that it was worth the time. It's too bad that no one kept score though.

HOW TO SUCCEED ...

... IN THE MBA RAT RACE

This pictorial guide takes you through the many skills which are required in order to succeed in the MBA program at the University of Toronto.

Those individuals featured in this guide are assumed to have mastered the required skills and are thus good examples of success (or at least they couldn't hide from the camera).

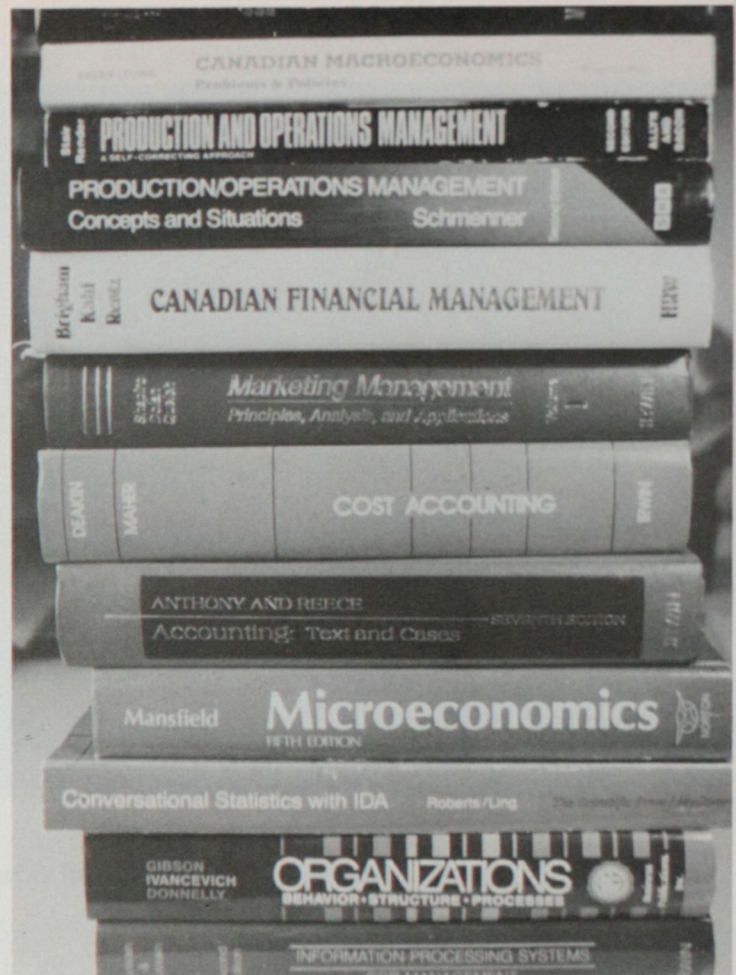

Learn to be able to recognize your faculty

Learn to make friends with inanimate objects

1ST YEAR STUDENTS

Learn to absorb
pages and pages
of exciting and wonderful books!

Learn to absorb
Ms. Pac Man

Make sure you can handle the crowds when looking for your marks

It is important that you develop the skill of drinking and playing sports at the same time

Do your homework in academic environments

Try to study
with a member of the church
for good luck

Learn to speak clearly (with your hands)

Listen intently while staring in your drink

Always inhale your coffee first

Smile whenever the press takes your picture

Participate in stimulating conversations!

Become good buddies with most of the teaching staff

Keep your pants up!

Consider name tags
to be part of your personal wardrobe

Learn to use blank overhead screens to your advantage

NEVER miss a chance to socialize!

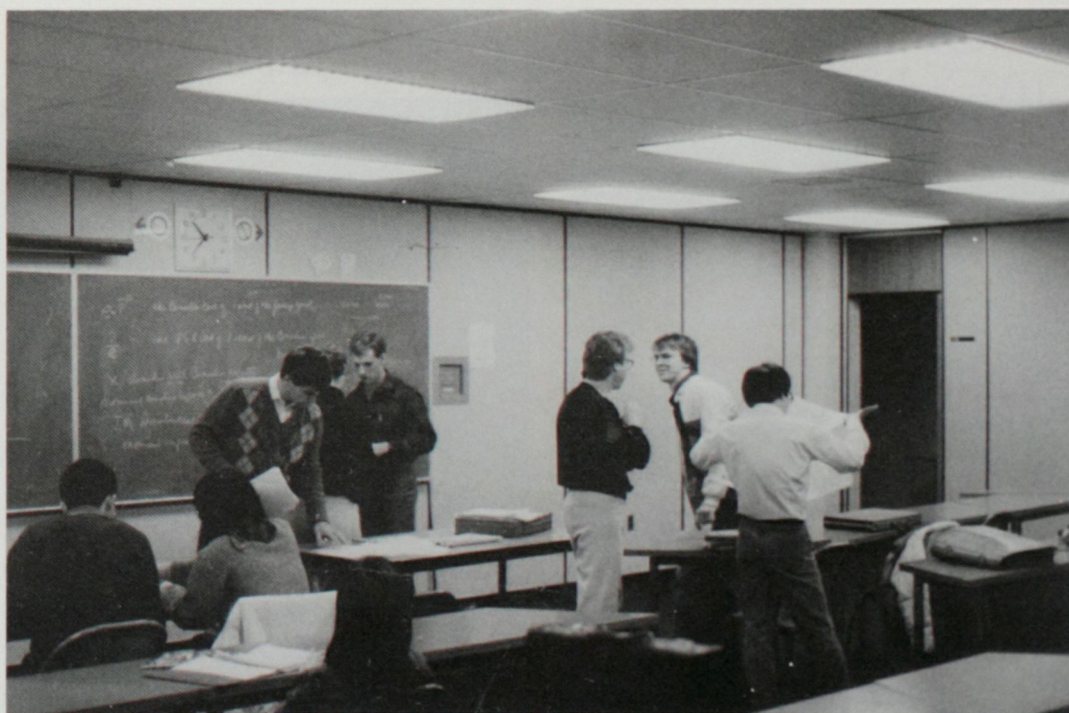

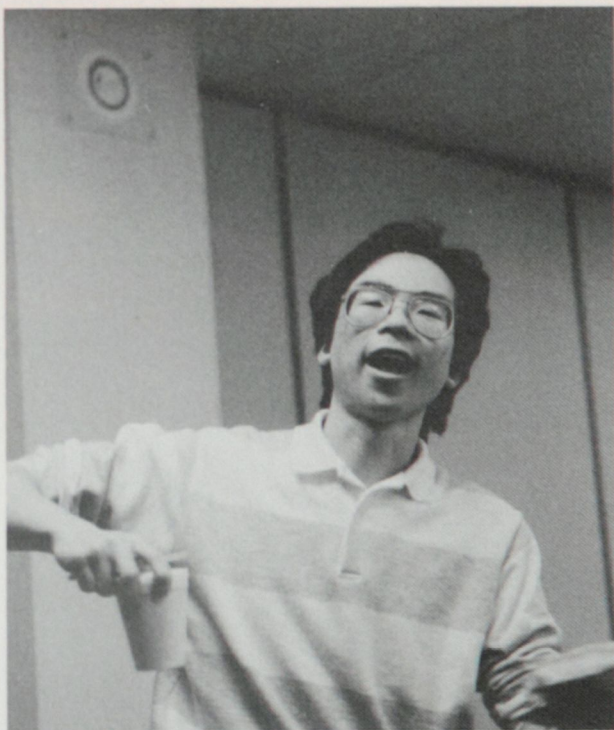

Never let go of the podium while speaking

Learn to suffer through group meetings

Attend classes ...
... once in a while

... AND WHEN THE TIMES GET TOUGH ... SMILE!

THE 1986 YEARBOOK STAFF

Ernie Chu

Nelson Leong

Ken Siegel

Ted Wheatley

The Yearbook Staff would like to congratulate the graduates of 1986 and wish them the best of luck in their future careers. This yearbook was designed to emphasize photographs, and therefore has few written parts. It was felt that photographs can better revive the memories and remind the graduates of a time which passed quickly, but which was worth every second.
